Salt Lake City, - - Utah,

THURSDAY, : : OCTOBER 23, 1884.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

THE PALE MOON.

THE STREETS are dry and dusty again. THE LAST of the match games between the Denvers and Blues to-day.

THE BAPTIST church concert, under the direction of Prof. Krouse, occurs this evening.

MR. MACKNIGHT'S lecture in Ogden was indifferently attended, owing mainly to had weather.

AN EXTRA number of HERALDS will be struck off this morning, a particularly large supply going to Ogden.

W. C. Dunnan, Jr., was subpostned fate last night, but whether as a witness or a juror we could not learn.

Deputy Marshals relieved each other at regular intervals in front of Mrs. Smith's residence Monday night.

Jos. Graham, who recently sustained severe injuries through being thrown from a buggy, is upon the streets again.

Mn. Jas. A. MacKnight repeats his well-known lecture before the Teachers' Institute, in Ogden, on Friday evening. THE Tribung's reporter looked like he had been made up for Banquo at the banquet during Judge Bennett's speech day two rars Horn Silver, $6,000; one bar Christy, $1,725; ten bars Ontario, $10,967—total, $18,602.

THE JURY in the Courad Staley case

Wells, Fargo & Co. received yester-

in his present quarters.

ceived one car Mayflower, $2,050; one car Hanauer, $1,950; one car Nevada ores, $3,850—total, $7,850. A most excellent portrait of Dr. Beneone of Calder's show windows. Mrs. Beattie, of the Twelfth Ward, had nine shirts and a lot of collars and cuifstolen from her yard on Monday. THE DISAPPOINTMENT at the intelligence published in THE HERALD, relative to Irving's decision not to come west, was quite general in amusement circles.

THE MANAGER of the Athletics, Mr. Klages, asks The Herand to return the thanks of his cub to Mesdames Hoag-land and West for their elegant floral THE EMMA mine at Sawtooth, Mr.

Shaughnessy and A. Jessen.

THE FOLLOWING named ladies and rentlemen take part this evening in the concert at the Baptist church: Miss Lowe, Mrs. Newcomb, Miss Russell, Mr. McClasky, Mr. Carlisle, Mr. McIntyre son appeared on the threshold with his and Mr. Krouse.

Entas Monnts, the builder, is making rapid progress wish the two-story brick addition on the southeast corner of the County Courthouse. The vault doors on the first floor are already in place. It will unquestionably be a veritable "sfrong room" for keeping of the re-

YESTERDAY'S ATTENDANCE at the base ball grounds was far better than that of the day previous. Those who arranged for the games, however, are still a long way from being "even," and the public should appreciate their endeavors to provide amusements by giving liberal patronage to this afternoon's game.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, a man giving the name of Cornelius Thomas "brought up standing" at the City Hall. It seems that he had been found in a canal near Jordan, in a hopeless condi-tion of inebriety, the day before, having intended suicide. Judge Spiers ordered Junction City. Now and then one of them is not guilty as charged, and such need not abandon hope.

P. H. LANNAN, Esq., of the Tribune, strolled into court yesterday afternoon to see what might be going on. Judge Bennett was going on, and a few such regimens per day as the sweat in which Mr. Lannan was bathed as he listened to the remarks, would do more towards reducing surplusage than all the dieting in the world.

THE BOARD of Equalization in the Seventh District closed its labors on Tuesday evening. The total amount payable on or before November 22d is $5,312.95. Ninetren dollars were remitted to poor and indigent persons, and reductions to the amount of $2,250 were made on property essessed too high. Messrs. Wadded, Wallace and Raybould constituted the board.

Meeting the Emergency.

Best XXXX Flour at $2.00 per hun-

G. F. CULMER & BROS.

Choice Utah Oats at $1.10 per hundred pounds at G. F. CULMER & BROS.

Chorren Barley at $1.10 per hundred on the witness stand. G. F. CULMER & BROS.

Exrna White Hluminating Oil will last haif as long again as any other Coal Oil, burn clearer, is absolutely fire test, and cheapest. Buy it of G. F. Culmer & Bros.

You Are Interested Yourself. The best of Liquors and Cigars always You will become convinced

AUER & MURPHY, Proprietors.

THE DAILY HERALD THE LONG AGONY

It Must All be Endured Again.

THE MISSING WITNESS.

The Dastardly Tribune Excoriated by Judge Bennett.

LYDIA SPENCER IN COURT.

Deputy Varian's Underground Railway Still Receiving Passengers.

A MARSHAL'S WILD GOOSE CHASE

Full Report of Bennett's Scathing Speech-An Open Venire for Fifty Names-No Change of Venue - An Eventrul Day's Doings.

Yesterday presented a succession of surprises all around. Instead of the were out nearly an hour yesterday clawson case sinking into the obscurity morning, and then returned with a verdict of "not guilty."

Clawson case sinking into the obscurity to which its recent notoriety might to which its recent notoriety might seem to entitle it, yesterday's events throw it again before the public gaze, intersified and recolored by the force and interest of the new circumstances A MAN named Brown was taken to which surround it. On Tuesday night the City Hall Tuesday evening in a de-mented condition. He will do no harm brought in their verdict of disagreement brought in their verdict of disagreement and were discharged by Judge Zane, McConston & Co. on Wednesday re- Deputy Marshal Lindsay Sprague served a subpœna upon a witness more material than any yet brought forward, and one whose presence has reopened dict, done in crayon and executed by the whole matter and again brought the the Payson artist, Mr. Hafen, adorns defendant into court—the young lady. defendant into court-the young lady, Miss Lydia Spencer herself. It appears THE CLOTHES line thief is again abroad. that she came to the house of Mrs. Smith (where she had rooms) on Monday evening, and remained there that night and all day on Tuesday. She was expecting a visit from the party or parties who had been keeping her posted as to the progress of affairs, and when a knock came at the back door, supposing A SMALL host of motions, demurrers, that some time had come with the exerce, were argued before Judge Twiss pected news, the door was at once yesterday. They are of little interest, except to the litigants and their attorpencer accepted the service quietly and without comment, but Mr. Sprague says she turned quite pale. The news of her being discovered did not become general that night, but on the streets yesterday morning it was the all-prevailing topic.

Marshal Ireland had apparently di-

Jessen informs us, is looking well, and rected an his forces for a simultaneous attack. About the same hour that the from lifteen to twenty men are kept cut above occurrences were taking place, not apply the same hour that the property of the same hour that the property of the same hour than the

"Then you cannot enter this house even though I knew the lady you wanted was forty miles away," was the reply, and the Captain retired crestfalfrom the scene It was evidently the opinion among the force of deputies, however, that the Clawson mansion was one of the identical depots of Deputy Varian's Underground Railway. Wednesday morning, on rising, the inmates of the house preceived the figure of Mr. Deputy McCurdy, muffled and overcoated, pacing up and down the sidewalk op-

Marshal Ireland led the assault on this point in person, hoping to surprise the lady of the house who had sometime before vanished into air, re-turning in a materialized condition. Vain, however, was the expectation. Mr, Henry Dinwoodey an wered the sharp, official, Third District sort of knock with the same imperturbability with which he answered Judge Dickson when "Not at home, was the response to the anxious inquiry and the marshal was constrained to take the earliest subterranean passage take the earliest subterranean passage trial. Your honor was obliged, under a parties again.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning all parties again appeared in court, and two jarrors were brought in think I shall not overslate matters it is parties again appeared in court, and Mr. Varian moved that the trial of the life prepared have been abhusted. White I shall not overslate matters it is think I shall not overslate matters it is think I shall not overslate matters it is the life prepared have been appeared in court, and were discharged on disagreement, it is impossible to get a jury at the principal witness could be just on the stand at any time and that is now on the stand at any time and that the principal witness could be just on the stand at any time and that it is impossible to get a jury from the box. I believe it is made at any time and that it is now on the stand at any time and that it is now on the stand at any time and that the principal witness could be into the criticating the defendant and him the close the call that the life is the stand to any time at the trial of the criticating the challenges of the think is the life to prepare that the content is at We are prepared to sell to families, at Richards objected this, stating the "Occidental," Pure California and that the principal witness could be imported Wines, at Reduced Prices. put on the stand at any time and that than the present.

At 2 o'clock a large crowd was in at-tendance, Miss Lydia Spencer, Mrs. Florence Clawson, and a great number of witnesses being present. As soon as order had been obtained Mr. Bennett presented an affidavit from the defendant, and moved on behalf of the defense for a change of venue, upon the follow-That the defendant had reason to be-rhat the desendant had reason to believe he could not have a fair and impartial trial before this Court, on account of the great prejudice and bias of the people of Salt Lake county and the Third Judicial District;

That under the orders and rulings of this Court the jurors in this case were selected only from persons who testified that they believed polygamy to be a have to be made up from persons brought in on an open venire;

That the Salt Lake Daily Tribuns, a paper widely circulated and very influential among non-Mormons, by its inflammatory and abusive articles during the late trial, and abuse of jurors un-willing to agree upon a verdict convicting the defendant, since the conclusion of the trial, had aroused a bitter prejadice against the defendant, who there-fore had reason to believe that he could not have a fair and impartial trial in that with an open venire men, good this court; and he accordingly moved Appended to this affidavit were several extracts from the Tribune of October 17th. 18th, and 19th, in which witnesses in the Clawson case, whose testimony seemed to favor the defendant, were stigmatized as liars, perjurers, etc., while Messrs. James E. Caine and J. M. Yoang, whose evicence was supposed to favor the prosecution, were spoken of in commendation or passed without criticism; all this during the progress of the trial and before the case had gone to the jury. Then came other extracts from the Tribune of the 22d inst., in which the four jurors who stood out for only to ridicule, but are maligned from the Tribune of the 22d inst, in which the four jurors who stood out for acquittel, were abused and slandered for their action, and other calcumies beaped upon the defendant, Lydin Spencer and others.

papers upon the table before him, he turned to the court and delivered the trict who will give the defendant a fair following forcible argument in support and impartial trial, the chances are of his motion. The speech was one of the as minety-nine to one that such a jury finest and most effective ever given because at this time be obtained, fore this bar, and the breathless attention with which it was followed by every listener, testified to the hold the spenfor had upon the general interest. The Herrico has taken pains to secure the speech verbatim.

If your honor please: I do lications given through a heated trial upon all reasonable minded men. Peo-like this, a trial against a person who ple nowadays are rather prone to weigh them the question why the Tribune had been given the unmes in violation of the ingests of the property of the prope justly so, if you please, that such com-ments running through the public press dice which no juryman in the box can possibly divest himself of, honest as he may be. A stronger case, in my judge best three transfer of the identiDeputy Varian's ment, could not be made. It is impossible for my client to know what A, B, C, the inmates of the inmates tion of inebriety, the day before, having intended suicide. Judge Spiers ordered him returned to St. Mary's Hospital.

All Nos-Mozmoss arraigned for any offense in the police courts of this city should bear in mind Dante's significant legend placed over the gates of hell.—Pilat. Our northern neighbor is unnecessarily severe on the Gentiles of the necessarily severe on the Gentiles of the next Undergous hours departure of the next Undergous hours are described but he does know, and we have now in formed your honor, that a great public teacher, the Salt Lake Daily Tribune, the only interfered the next Undergous hours are till whether or not these Tribune articles have head the effect el imed, unsured that the special position of the other trival or departure of the next Undergous hours hours are till whether or not these Tribune articles have head the effect el imed, unsured that it was one of the other than the only interfered that was one of the other trival or departure of the next Undergound Train. Some of the boys and girls in the house, thinking thatit would be a pity to allow the deputy's zeal to go unrewarded, dressed one of the interfered to the next Undergound Train. Some of the boys and girls in the house, thinking thatit would be a pity to allow the deputy's zeal to girl in the house in Mrs. Clawson's port with much less influence; but this case impartially; let us first try and see by bringing fifty, or offert was one of the other tribune.

The four gentlemen so vindictively will try this case impartially; let us first try and see by bringing fifty, or offert was one of the other tribune.

The four gentlemen so vindictively will try this case impartially; let us first try and see by bringing fifty, or offert was one of the other tribune.

The four gentlemen so vindictively make the defect of im per criticism. Here is a power. They will consent as will speak about the power of the priesthood a change of venue. client here, as entering upon another were compelled to return home now or await here for this case to be disposed of. Mr. bennett also stated that Mr. were in the box knew for one year last have said i would like to see the other voted twice with the minufity. Harkness, who had taken an important part in preparing the defense, would be absent from the city to-day, and a post-ponement was therefore urged on that their minds clear and free from any ground as well. The first land were in the box knew for one year last past that they were jurymen, and if they were honest, conscientious men, they had preserved, so far as they could, their minds clear and free from any ground as well. The prosecution, however, insisted that the trial be proceeded men taken from the street, or from the with at 2 o'clock, and Judge Zane gave counties composing this district. They his ruling in their favor, stating that if are men who up to this hour have been the defendant was guilty he should be perfectly free to express any cpinion, convicted, if innocent he should be acquitted, and he thought there could as they might by gossip, or otherwise, then the present that they can come into this box under an open venire with a blank mind, with that free intellect, with that freedom from prejudice which jurors regularly placed in the box would pos-sess. Therefore, to get a jury for this case now, as I say, an open venire will have to be issued, people will have to be brought in who have heard of the case, have talked about it, have their opinions about it, have their prejudices, if you please. More than that, if your honor please: These men will come in not feeling that they are charged as men whose names ave been in the box, and who feel that they have a juryman's duty to dis-charge; but they come in here heedless, careles, or buildozed or frightened, not desiring to sit, saying nothing now about any active prejudice in their minds, That the jury box containing names of jurors to act at the present term of Court, was practically exhausted, and as a result, the jury, according to the rulings and orders of this Court, would rulings and orders of this Court, would these newspaper comments, after all that had occurred on the street, how many men of standing, of character, many men of standing, of character, who can be trusted with any and every frust, are there in the city of Salt Lake, or in the Third Judicial District who have not formed or expressed an opinion in regard to this case? I doubt whether such a man, if he be an honest, straightforward man, can be found in the dis triet of persons otherwise qualified to men and true, can be brought in here who can conscientiously go into that for a change of venue to some other ourt in the Territory.

Appended to this affidavit were several heaven, and in this presence, swear that Spencer and others.

Mr. Bengett read the affidavit and the sensational headings of the Tribune articles, with some extracts of the most violent portions, in a slow, distinct and very impressive manuser. Laying the papers upon the table before him to the sensation of the most because of venue. I think it must be manifest to your honor that while there may be a chance (to put it in the mildest papers upon the table before him to fertiling the form to feeting the form to feeting the sensation.

Mr. Bennett was followed by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Varian, whose speech was substantially as follows:

newspaper statements, and decide upon their correctness before they adopt them. Again, how does the gentleman know at the entrance.

Another branch of Deputy Varian's
Underground Railway was supposed to exist in the Seventh Ward, with its depot at the residence of Mr. Henry Dinwoodey. Marshal Ireland led to every the entrances of their organ, which stands as a watchdog over indict cent in the defendant makes his motion on the ground that he can not receive a fair and impartial trial in this district.

Mr. Forbes desired to say nothing at its instructed by utterances of their organ, which stands as a watchdog over indict cent in the defendant makes his motion on the ground that he can not receive a fair and impartial trial in this district.

Mr. Forbes desired to say nothing at its instructed by utterances of their organ, which stands as a watchdog over indict cent in the first where the last trial in the first is the sentiment I try to be actuated by, and that is the sone that influenced me in the late trial."

Mr. Forbes desired to say nothing at its instructed by utterances of their organ, which stands as a watchdog over indict cent in the first makes his motion on the ground that he can not receive a fair and impartial trial in this district.

Mr. Forbes desired to say nothing at its instructed by the Tribute editor. is instructed by utterances of their organ, which stands as a watchdog over their privileges and rights, that my of defendant. The law also provides man's life or record upon which he chient's friends—who have had the hardsbefriend him in this the hour of his prosecution—are liars, perjurers, everything that is bad. That a not all. That is not the worst, if your table the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but hend of stock of any kind in Utah, and the representation of defendant, but he representation of defendant alleges. The question is not the worst, if your true? The court must not only take the representation of defendant, but he representation of defendant alleges. hood, as they would say, to attempt to it is satisfied that such circumstances name of Mrs. Forbes into his villainous befriend him in this the hour of his exist as defendant alleges. The question article. is not all. That is not the worst, if your honor please. I need only refer to the records of this court, and the recollection of your honor, for this fact: the regular jury provided under the law—I mean under the statute—is exhausted, or was practically exhausted in the late or was practically exhausted in the facts the representation is that the facts was practically exhausted in the defendant was very restance or was practically exhausted. The facts are was practically exhausted in the court was such as the facts of stock of any kind in Utah, and haven't had for a year or two," said he, was place to-day, and it is to be haven't had for a year or two," said he, was place to-day, and side before adopting a belief, and many people may not have read the reports at

The question is, whether the inference of the influence these articles have had upon the public mind is a true and proper one. No public demonstration has taken place, and as far as we can see there is no generally popular feeling upon the subject. The fact is, I think, that most men will be influenced rather by the evidence, than by newspaper rerisof it.

With respect to the last fact that the jurors are brought in upon an open venire and that they will be more likely to be prejudiced, I hardly see much in that charge. I am of the opinion that the apple ation upon the mere attidavit of the defendent is not sufficient. The motion is verruled. Mr. Bennett excepted to the ruling, and immediately presented another motion, asking that the case be con-tinued until the next term of the

The Court said: "The motion does not show sufficient cause for a continu-Let the motion be overruled. The Judge stated in answer to Mr. Varian's inquiry, that no more names remained in the box, and the regular panel was thereupon resorted to. The names of Messrs, Turpin, Hill, Winder, Loder, Bates, Earl, Sappington, Davis, Archibald, Booth and Pack, were called,

Messrs, Hardman, Jensen, Green and Asmussen were then called to the box to make up the deficiency. right for a man to have more than one ving and undivorced wife at the same lime?"

Messrs, Turpin, Hill, Winder, Bates, Earl, Archibald, Hardman, Green and Asmussen all ansewered the question in he affirmative Messrs. Pack, Oviatt and Jensen all tive, and the probabilities are that the leclined to answer, and amid the laughmuch-mooted question will now about ter of the crowd the whole twelve men were excused, and the jury box was again depleted. The names of Mesors. Proctor, Neal and Farrell were called, and the clerk announced these were all he names remaining of the regular

Mr. Varian moved that an open venire Mr. Bennett objected, upon the round that there was no law authorizng it; overrused. Judge Zane instructed Marshal Ircland to take an open venire for fifty names, returnable this morning at 10

The court then adjourned and the Marshal started upon his pilgrimage. Miss Spencer endured the curious inpection of the crowd with becoming almness. She was attired in plain dack, and wore a straw hat with a white feather. She has an attractive face and appearance, and without being beautiful is what would be always called undeniably good looking.

Next to the interest in the discovery

That may be comprehenced by the completed as well as those older, and compet all to see their truth and value.

Mr. Glover leaves for Chicago to-day bit the Little Gis nt rord, and takes with him the hearty good wall, and admiration of hundreds of the residents of this city.

of the missing witness, and the reopen-ing of the case, was the feeling on all nt Prosecuting Attorney Varian, whose ing of the case, was the feeling on all peech was substantially as follows:

The counsel's presumption is that made by the Tribute on the four gentlement in the jury who had been in favor the lecture room of the M. E. church. every Mormon is a polygamist, and that men in the jury who had been in invo-no non-Mormon can be found who is not under the control of the Salt Lake vesterday morning, it was solennily ganization for the milymesoment of a tack. About the same hour that the above occurrences were taking place, Captain Greenman appeared at the registence of Mr. H. B. Clawson, in the Werlt Ward, and asked to see Mrs. Margaret Clawson.

"She is not in," was the reply.

"What it?" was his query.

"What it?" was his query.

"Want Mrs. M. G. Clawson," was the remained with this court, nor to protect the above the first in the box. I might say many things about this character of journalism. I withhold them. I have more withing and the regard work so well associated in the jury room that no disciplination for the advancement and propose to make any except the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to make any expectation of the good work so well and the propose to the matter of the propose to the good work so well and the propose to the propose to the propose of the grain agreement entered into? All professed that they knew absolutely nothing about the matter, and stated that they were unable to imagine who had re-vealed the names, Mr. Footh adding that they should certainly have been given to both papers if to either. As neither of these five gentlemen knows sible for my client to know what A, B, C.

B, and this individual here and that individual there in this district knows about this case or cares about this case; position, and concluded by saying that no facts have been adduced; and no one having told the manes, the only interpolate the case in trial. Mr. Varian any concludes, Mr. Woodman, Mr. Serial several authorities supporting his mer nor Mr. Loder can be suspected of having told the manes, the only interpolate the case in trial. Mr. Varian any concludes the case in trial any conclu when Mr. Deputy McCurdy was immediately opposite the house, one of the boys hurriedly drove up in a buggy to the door; the disguised lady ran out, jumped in the buggy and the horse was lashed into a furious. Strong, powerful in influence, reaches to obtain an impartial jury, and then inter irresponsibility and the national transfer of the defendant's claim will either stand on regulation of the sheet making the niter irresponsibility and the national transfer of the government, whether we are unable to obtain an impartial jury, and then one reputation of the sheet making the niter irresponsibility and the national transfer of the part of the government, whether we are unable to obtain an impartial jury, and then one reputation of the sheet making the niter irresponsibility and the national transfer of the part of the government, whether we are unable to obtain an impartial jury, and then one reputation of the sheet making the national transfer of the part of the government, whether we are unable to obtain an impartial jury, and then one reputation of the sheet making the case of newspaper articles or news the horse was lashed into a furious gait; the deputy halted, his nostrils spread, he took the bait; with one bound he reached the centre of the road; pulling his subpona from his pocket, he dashed after the disappearing vehicle, and the last seen of him by the hysterical immates of the house, he was turning the corner at a frightful when roads and the last seen of him by the corner at a frightful when roads and the last seen of him by the hysterical immates of the house, he was turning the corner at a frightful when roads and the last seen of him by the corner at a frightful when roads and the last seen of him by the corner at a frightful when roads and the last seen of him by the corner at a frightful when roads and the last seen of him by the power of the priesthood of the Mormon church. It is as great in a change of value, of the Mormon the power of the priesthood of the Mormon church. It is as great in a change of value, of the Mormon the power of the priesthood of the Mormon church. It is as great in a change of value, of the Mormon the power of the priesthood of the Mormon church. It is as great mo doubt as they claim, but if your reading a number of authorities in conformity with his position. The defense stated that they had nothing further to offer, and would submit the motion without additional argument.

I take it, said he, "that the charge of Jack Mormonism means nothing more without additional argument."

Judge Zene took but a few morners. for some time been the principal in a suit brought against the Tribuse comder, and would submit the motion is the state of take it." said he, "that the charge of Jack Mormonism means nothing more took but a few moments. was turning the corner at a frightful trial when one has just misearried by a went around the block, returned to the gate and deposited its laughing burden and the property of the authorities, and then the following decision, denying the corner at a frightful trial when one has just misearried by a disagreement of the jury? In this newspaper all his witnesses, or nearly all, have been branded to every the authorities, and then delivered the following decision, denying the motion for a change of venue:

The defendant makes his motion on to be actuated by, and that is the one or the motion for a change of venue:

The defendant makes his motion on to be actuated by, and that is the one voted twice with the minutes before deciding to join the other saven. He may expect to have his family matters hauled over to-morrow by the effice of the Tribune.

NO FREE DELIVERY.

All Our Preparations for a Free Delivery of the Mails Likely to Prove Useless.

Ever since the Council re-numbered all the buildings in the city, and made other changes by which the long promised free delivery mail system was to be introduced into Salt Lake, people have been in expectation of hearing definitely when the boon was to be bestowed. A reporter of THE HERALD, sharing some thing of the general desire to learn the status of the matter, yesterday asked Hon. John T. Caine for some information in relation to it. Mr. Caine replied that he knew nothing more than that he had been told just previous to leav-ing Washington that the probabilities were favorable for a commencement of the free delivery on October 1st, and he knew of no reason why nothing had hames of Messrs. Turpin, Hill, Winder, Loder, Bates, Earl, Sappington, Davis, Archibald, Booth and Pack, were called, and these gentlemen took their places. Messrs, Loder, Sappington, Davis and Booth were excused, as they had served on the jury which tried the case before had recently conversed with Mr. Banna-man, one of the officials of the depart-Messrs. Hardman, Jensen, Green and ismussen were then called to the box o make up the deficiency.

Mr. Varian then applied his crucial est to each: "Do you believe that it is light for a man to have more than one lying and undivorced wife at the same of the officials of the department in the did not think it likely Salt Lake would be given the system at all. From other sources, are sight for a man to have more than one lying and undivorced wife at the same of the officials of the department, who had told him that he did not the system at all. From other sources, are sentinged in Washington against this city on account of its spreading over so city on account of its spreading over so great an area, and the lear was that the service would be too expensive to justify its adoption.

Mr. Lynch's information is authoritamuch-mooted question will now slum-

Blue Ribbon Movement.

An intelligent audience crowded the M. E. Church last evening to hear the farewell address of Mr. T. W. Glover. who has made such a remarkable impression upon the minds of hundreds of people during his course of meetings, About 200 names have been taken in this short but vigorous campaign against the evil of intemperance. Those who have attended his meetings cannot easily forget the cornestness with which he has addressed them.

The interest has not been worked up in a sensational manner, but by steady carnest application of social and scien-tific facts that cannot be gainsaid; facts that may be comprehended by the

On Monday evening next all Blue

It is an open secret that there is a great deal of dissatisfaction among local stockholders in the famous Crescent, and it is rumored that the feeling extends to one or two at least who are directors in the company. The matter which has given rise to the trouble is the expenditure of $30,000 or more in constructing a transway from the mine to the concentrating mill a distance of about five miles, the com-plaining stockholders claiming that the orthay was an entirely needless one, and that if the mill need be constructed at all, it should have been built at the

The amount of stock held in Utah is about 170,000 shares; the remaining 430,000 shares are owned by Michigan parties, whose views Mr. Ferry is un-derstood to be carrying out. The meet-ing of the stockholders occurs on November 3d, and it is probable that a great deal of the present disaffection may then come to the surface.

A Bet Decided.

The sporting editor of THE HERALD IS called on to decide a bet, and as the juestion amounts to a consideration bove and beyond a bet, we give it all due attention. The question is this A het B that Ohio would go Republican by 10,000 majority; which winst

In sporting circles, election bets are governed by the result as to the highest office on the ticket, no matter how the rest of it may go. The position of Secretary of State was the highest office voted for in Ohio, and the Republican candidate had a plurality, that is, a majority over any other candidate, but he was more than 1,600 votes short of a majority over all. Therefore B wins.

The Last Game.

The last of the match games between Blues takes place to-day, and it is to be